

Together We Can End Domestic Violence And Sexual Assault

Through advocacy, collaboration, and prevention education, we can provide tools and resources to help inspire transformative cultural change.

Our Mission

The South Carolina Coalition Against Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault (SCCADVASA) serves as the collective voice promoting the prevention of domestic violence and sexual assault in South Carolina.

Our Vision

A South Carolina free from domestic violence and sexual assault.

Who We Are

Since 1981, SCCADVASA has been a leader in representing the needs of survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault. We are a pivotal voice in violence prevention, and we advance our work through advocacy, education, and collaboration.

Our Coalition

We are an independent 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, but our approach is highly collaborative. We work with our 22 domestic and sexual violence members who provide direct services in communities across the state, as well as affiliates, partners, and allies. SCCADVASA is an active member of several national domestic and sexual violence networks, and we work in partnership with coalitions in all 50 states and several US territories.

Systems Advocacy

We work to improve the responsiveness of systems (i.e., Law Enforcement, Social Services) to better meet the needs of survivors.

Public Policy Advocacy

We do policy research and development to support legislative advocacy at the state and federal levels.

Get Information

Education is the first step towards change. Our team at SCCADVASA wants to make sure that everyone has the information they need. With knowledge in hand, we have the power to change ourselves, teach our communities, and break the cycle of violence.

Our website provides an extensive library of resources and publications related to domestic violence, sexual assault, and other common and intersecting topics related to intimate partner violence.
